

HGV Class 1 Driver – North Wales

Due to continued business growth, there is an opportunity for a HGV Class 1 driver to join the Wales Environmental Group at our North Wales Depot.

Driving articulated vacuum tankers you will be personable, practical and ideally have previous experience in the sector.

You will have excellent communications skills and great customer service skills as you will be dealing directly with clients / customers.

As a tanker driver you will be expected to fulfil all jobs to the required standards and the customer's reasonable expectations.

The role:

You may be required tramp out up to 4 nights per week, with night out allowance. Overtime is also available on weekends so drivers will need to be flexible for weekend work.

The types of work that you will undertake will include, but not be limited to vacuum tankering. There will also be an element of necessary paperwork with the job. All works undertaken must be carried out in accordance with the Health and Safety policy including wearing PPE at all times

Main responsibilities of the HGV Class 1 Driver roles include: to maintain excellent levels of customer service to ensure accurate and timely communications with the transport team To operate within current driving and working time legislation to ensure good self-presentation, including vehicle to help maintain a safe working environment in line with H&S Act 1974

The Successful HGV Class 1 Drivers will have the following: Experience preferably with Tankers/Liquids CPC Qualified Possess a digital tachograph card Have a full understanding of tachograph legislation.

Ability to demonstrate the highest level of professionalism Able to accommodate Nights out during the week

For further information please contact us on 02920 456 456 or email your CV to careers@walesenviro.com

WALES ENVIRONMENTAL GROUP

